

4Cs and Instruction Resources

THE LEADER'S GUIDE TO 21ST CENTURY EDUCATION: 7 STEPS FOR SCHOOLS AND DISTRICTS by Ken Kay and Valerie Greenhill

This is a timely new resource on preparing students for the challenges of the 21st century. The Leader's Guide prescribes and inspires the leading of schools and teachers to organize and implement the 4Cs (critical thinking, collaboration, communication, creativity) of 21st century school change.

<http://tinyurl.com/EL21-7Steps>

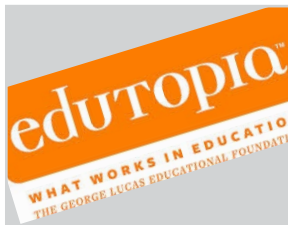

EDUCATION FOR LIFE AND WORK

published by The National Research Council

The NRC released this report which describes an important set of key skills that increase learning, college and career readiness, student-centered learning, and higher order thinking. For your reference, the report is available for download on the NRC's website.

http://www.nap.edu/catalog.php?record_id=13398

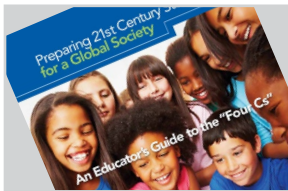

EDUTOPIA

published by the George Lucas Educational Foundation

Edutopia is a website that empowers and connects teachers, administrators, and parents with innovative solutions and resources to better education. Edutopia is dedicated to transforming the learning process by helping educators implement core strategies for innovation and reform in learning.

www.edutopia.org

AN EDUCATOR'S GUIDE TO THE FOUR CS

published by the National Education Association

The NEA developed this guide to introduce educators to the concept of the 4Cs, stress their importance and encourages educators to put 21st century education into classroom practices.

<http://www.nea.org/tools/52217.htm>

FIELDING NAIR INTERNATIONAL

Fielding Nair International (FNI) is the global leader for educational facilities planning and architectural design. FNI help clients define the future of education in their communities and then provide the services to implement change management strategies as part of their school reform agenda.

www.fieldingnair.com

